Although they did not know it, the Yalta Conference, which took place in Soviet Russia in F _____ 19 ____ was the last time the Big Three wartime leaders: _____, _____ and _____ would meet together to discuss the post war settlement.

On the battle fronts of Europe, one million S _____ troops were advancing on Nazi Germany _____, while British and American forces, which had come ashore after the ____ Day Landing in J _____ 19 ____ were advancing from the west.

The Allies met at Yalta to discuss what would happen to Germany once the _____ had been defeated.

Although Great Britain, the U. ___ and the U. ___ co-operated as allies, deep tensions were hidden under the surface.

2. Read Lines 4 to 12 on Page 2. Explain why Stalin was resentful of Britain and America by 1945.
3. Look at the American Interpreter's lines 7 to 9. Give 2 reasons why the British and American did not open a second front before 1944.
4. Read Molotov's lines 27 to 29. Explain why the Russians resented Britain's policy of Appeasement in the 1930s.
5. From your own knowledge, explain why Britain had resented the U.S.S.R's policy towards Nazi Germany in the late 1930s.
6. Find Molotov's Line 9 on Page 3 and read on, filling in the chart below with details of the agreements made by the Allies at the Yalta Conference.
